The Tottenville Historical Society is compiling a database of all living and deceased veterans, including former residents, who served from the following communities: Tottenville, Charleston, Rossville, Pleasant Plains, Prince's Bay, Huguenot, Annadale, Great Kills and Richmond Valley. This information is being collected for the Society's permanent collection solely for historical purposes.

We hope you will wish to honor your loved ones and friends by including them in this collection. Please be as specific and as accurate as possible. Additional information may be printed clearly on the back side of this form or attached. Return this form to the address above.
